BLACK (0 kcal)

Royal Breakfast

It was customary for The East India Company to bring gifts on returning ships for the Sovereign. In 1664, the Company was distressed to find that no provision of a gift for King Charles II had been made.

Accordingly, two pounds of tea found on board were presented to the King, and so began a long Royal tradition of tea drinking. With a rich and robust flavour, this blend of Royal Breakfast loose leaf black tea is a full-bodied alternative to the English breakfast tea.

A single estate-grown black tea at an elevation of 5,600 feet on the Pidurutalagala Mountain in Nuwara Eliya. This is a seasonal pick from tea bushes of more than 100 years of age. A tea of choice for connoisseurs, who prefer the larger leafy variety of Orange Pekoe teas from Pedro, with their soft, smooth and highly aromatic flavour profile.

With an exceptional aroma and flavour profile, this tea is light, sweet, floral and delicate – a deliciously fragrant cup. Medium-bodied and vibrant, the elegant aromatic flavours of Neroli and Bergamot give a sweet and citrusy note.

This exquisite white tea is hand-cut with golden scissors and collected in a golden pot, before its unopened buds unfurl from the heat of the sun. A rare and truly memorable white tea worth savouring, with a second brew revealing a new depth of flavour.

Silver Dawn

These delicate tea buds remain tender thanks to the gentle mists which shroud the Namunukula Mountain in Sri Lanka, before being collected by expert pickers using a velvet cloth to hold the tea buds, thus preserving the characteristic silvery white fur. The tea has a sweetish background and a flavour that lingers long on the palate, blended with precious Persian saffron to further enhance the soft sweetness of the cup.
